

Bunyip – Knowledge(Arcana) DC20

- The bunyip is about 6 feet long, though specimens of up to 10 feet long have been encountered. The front portion of its body resembles a large black seal, while its rear half is that of a shark. They begin combat using their powerful roar and then bite opponents who do not succumb to the fear-inducing effects of their roar.
- Type: Medium Magical Beast
- Weapons: 1 Bite Attack(Augmented)
- Special Qualities: Low-Light, Darkvision 60 ft, Keen Scent
- Special Attacks: Roar, Frenzy, Augmented Bite

Roar(Su): A bunyip's roar is supernaturally loud and horrifying. All creatures within a 100-foot spread of a roaring bunyip must make a Average to Tough Will save or become panicked for up to half a minute.

Keen Scent(Ex): A bunyip can notice creatures by scent in a 180-foot radius and can detect blood in the water at a range of up to a mile.

Frenzy(Ex): A bunyip that detects blood in the water has a chance of flying into a frenzy the following round.

Augmented Critical(Ex): Creatures killed by a bunyip's critical hit are typically dismembered or beheaded.